FRIDAY REHEARSALS!

I went to my first Friday rehearsal this week
and discovered two points!

ONE – Well done to the Sketch players
(The Owls and The Film Maker)...

The Sketches are fantastic... You all know your words and Film Makers is Very Funny. You all enjoyed the rehearsal is seemed and didn't mind me messing about... But did you notice that you all knew where I had to be standing and where I had to come in and leave the stage... Proof that you know what you are doing in the Sketches!

TWO – How disappointed with the Turn out I was. Fair few people where missing.

With Only 3 Sunday rehearsals now till the week of the show (after tonight) we need to buckle down and Nail everything. So PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE... Make every effort to addend every rehearsal! Sorry to harp on!

Steven

Blyth-ing along on the crest of a wave!

On Wednesday night, some of the production team travelled up to see the Blyth Gang Show. It was a great show and we had a fantastic time watching it. Steven even got the chance to go backstage and meet the cast. We spoke to the producer, Dave McClen, afterwards, and he told us to tell you all to “break a leg”!

If we can spend these last few weeks of rehearsals working hard, we can put on a show that's just as good as, if not better than, the Blyth show. We've already put in lots of hard work so let's not let it go to waste and show the audience as good a time as the Blyth cast did.

You're all doing fantastic and we couldn't be prouder! Let's have one final push to make the show extra extra amazing!

Blyth Valley, as well as other Gang Show teams from around the North East, are coming to see our show during the week! Best Smiles on! ☺

There were two biscuits walking down the street and one says to the other:
"Where do you live then?" to which the other replies

"I'm not telling you....you'll come round and pinch
