DofE[G] / QSA Residential

Please don't forget that those of you working towards your QSA and DofE[G] need to plan your residential.

There is still time to organise something for October half-term week.

County Challenge

The challenge has been set by the County Commissioner - for the week starting Saturday 5th October, Do your Scouting in a public place!

We will start with a Market Stall in Northallerton
 We need a rota of helpers for all day on Saturday 5th October. Please bring your availability to our meeting on 16th September,

Recent Activities

Yorkshire Dales Cycleway
 27th July - 4th August.

Well done to everyone for completing the week of cycling. Please hand in your sponsorship money if you have not already done so.

Gliding August.

The weather was against us and the gliding ended up over two evenings with a few people still due to fly.

Another session will be arranged soon.

In August the DofE[G] / QSA Expedition Team successfully completed their Qualifying Expedition following the old Border Counties railway from north of Kielder toward Hexam.

Thank you and well done to everyone who helped with Bagpacking in Morrisons on 24th August. It raised a magnificent £540 for the Unit Travel fund..

Osmotherley Weekend Away
 6th - 8th September.

The India 2014 team started their planning and the new members of the Unit were able to start their expedition training. As part of the weekend we served afternoon teas on the Saturday.

The same weekend, the DofE[B] / CSPA team completed their Qualifying Expedition.

We will start the Candle-making Skills sessions on 31st August.

In addition to the main programme of activities, the India 2014 Team have planned a series of fund-raising events.

Please help promote these by distributing the publicity materials, selling tickets and assisting with these events. These contribute to other awards for everyone.

Please ask if you need more copies of the publicity booklet and/or flyers and posters.
