Young Leaders

It's nine months since we held the last formal Y.L. training session and there has been a "Zero" return of completed projects and missions. This despite a lot of hard work that has gone into helping various Groups. I am aware that some of you did the 2006 missions but I'm still waiting your reports! Did anyone do their 2007 Mission?

Have a look at your progress records. If you have modules shown in lower case, it means that you attended the training session but have not completed the associated project and now should attend the session again.
