

BIG MOUTH - taking you to 2007!
636 Days To GO!!! (1st March 2006)

So... A Big Thank You!

WE HAVE GANG SHOW STATUS! Wahoo... unbeknown to all in the team and cast, Steven had arranged to have the show assessed! He is some of the comments the Gang Show assessor made...

Cast: The ratio of leaders to young people was very good. Some very competent young people.

Singing: Tuneful, most knew their words and sang them confidently and with enthusiasm. The soloist in brown costume coped well. All credit to him that it did not put him off

Movement: In the choreographed numbers most moved with confidence, other tried hard with surreptitious glances at their neighbours. Those who didn't know their steps made a good try at something.

Overall Performance: Generally a good show with potential that created an atmosphere in which the audience could participate and enjoy. Not quite as slick as might be, but for a second night show I am sure it will improve.

Items, which stood out: -

1. A very confident start by the rapper.
2. The odd mix of attire for the orchestra!
3. The confidence of tractor man
4. Young ladies with beaming smiles throughout

Overall Comments and Recommendations: *A good audience participation show, which ended on a high. Most of the cast enjoyed themselves and beamed their smiles. Others had enjoyed it, but were concentrating too much to enjoy themselves. A well done to all who took part both on and off stage a team effort. I recommend that the show receive recognition status.

Well Done Everyone!

So What Does Recognition Mean?

Recognition is given to the show by the London Gang Show fellowship, through the assessment from the Gang Show Assessors throughout the country. If a show passes the required standard for a Gang Show then they have the honour of placing the Gold 'GS' on the back of their Red Neckers and using the 'GS' in their promotional and advertising literature. Here is what ours will look like.

So... 2007... What's in store...?

We have a few ideas that the production team are discussing already. It does take this long to sort out! Honest! None of these numbers have names as of yet but we have ideas around themes...

A Hotel, Americas, Showstoppers, Kids TV, In the Convent, Brothers Grimm, Joseph and his Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat, The Swinging 60's, 100 years of Scouting, Yorkshire... and a few more! Do you have any ideas, then let us know via the website.

To be in the 2007 show you must be an active member of the Scouting or Guiding Movements, so keep it up.

...speaking of the website

Have you been on? Have you registered your interest in 2007... Robin Pepper has! and he is the only one!?! Do it now and check out all the pictures from the party, the backstage and front of house and on the stage.
